

THE THIRD UMPIRE

IN: Finance and Fiscal Commission acting chairman Bongani Khumalo, for urging the government to moderate expenditure on public sector salaries — of which, compared to international norms, there are too many.

IN: Exonerated deputy director of public prosecutions Glynnis Breytenbach, who, despite her suspension and shoddy treatment, is still prepared to pursue charges against Richard Mdluli, making her a brave woman.

OUT: Vietnam President Truong Tan Sang. One of his country's bloggers has been arrested for posting criticism of the communist government, accused of "abusing democratic freedoms". What democratic freedoms?
